

EDITORIAL

This problem is basically based on ideas of 0/1 knapsack where you have to choose whether to select an object or not.

Here similarly you have to choose whether to select the coin or not.

The problem can be solved recursively as well as iteratively.

Find all the possible combinations of coins and then see which all have a value equal to Cost.

Time complexity will be $O(\text{Cost} * N)$.